FEDERAL PELL GRANT

Pell Grant funding for summer study can be funded from either the 2017-2018 or 2018-2019 Award Year, but not both. If you have remaining Federal Pell Grant funds from your 2017-2018 award year, we will apply the appropriate remaining Federal Pell Grant funds to your bill, and Federal Pell Grant eligibility is based on your enrollment and Expected Family Contribution (EFC). These funds may not

Summer Sessions

Session I: 4-Week 1S (June 1-June 28)

Session I: 5-Week 1L (June 1- July 5)

Session II 5-Week 2 (July 9-August 9)

cover the full cost of the tuition and fee expense.

If you do not have remaining 2017-2018 Federal Pell Grant funds or do not have enough funds from that year, you can use 2018-2019 Federal Pell Grant scheduled award to fund summer study 2018.

Starting with the Award Year 2017-2018, students may receive Federal Pell Grant Year-Round this means if you register for six or more credits an award will be created based on your 2017-2018 or 2018-2019 Pell eligibility.

Federal Pell Grant Eligibility

Any Federal Pell Grant funds received including summer will be included in the students 600% of maximum Federal Pell Lifetime Eligibility Usage (LEU). Check www.nsls.ed.gov for your Lifetime Eligibility Usage.

If you are eligible for a PELL award for the Summer 2018, your award will reflect on your Bursar Bill. Final certification of your PELL award is required and will be based on the total number of credits completed for all 2018 Summer sessions with completion grades of A, B, C, D, F or R. Eligibility for the award assumes that you will complete the courses for which you registered. No estimated PELL awards will be used toward payment of summer session classes.
